Your use of each Third-Party Service is governed solely by the terms and policies of that service. You are responsible for reading, understanding, and complying with those terms.

6. ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE OUTPUT

The Materials guide you to install and configure artificial intelligence systems including Anthropic Claude. AI systems can and do produce output that is incorrect, incomplete, outdated, biased, fabricated ("hallucinated"), or otherwise unsuitable for your purpose. You acknowledge and agree that:

- AI output must never be relied upon without independent human verification

- AI must never be used to make legal, medical, financial, regulatory, safety-critical, or life-impacting decisions without qualified human professional review
- AI output may contain errors that look correct on the surface
- The Provider has no control over, and accepts no responsibility for, the content or accuracy of any AI output generated through the systems described in the Materials
- You are solely responsible for reviewing, verifying, and approving any output before acting on it, sending it to clients, or publishing it

7. USER RESPONSIBILITIES

You are solely responsible for, and the Provider has no liability whatsoever regarding:

- The security, backup, encryption, and recovery of your data, vault contents, and files
- The protection and confidentiality of any client information, personally identifiable information, protected health information, or other sensitive data you place into the systems described in the Materials

- Tax obligations arising from any income generated through the use of the Materials

If your business is subject to industry-specific regulatory requirements (including but not limited to insurance, financial services, healthcare, legal services, or any other regulated industry), you are solely responsible for ensuring that your use of the Materials and any related AI workflows complies with all such requirements. The Provider makes no representation that the Materials are compliant with any specific regulatory framework.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE PROVIDER, ITS OWNERS, MEMBERS, MANAGERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, CONTRACTORS, AFFILIATES, OR LICENSORS BE LIABLE TO YOU OR TO ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY:

- Direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages
- Loss of profits, revenue, business, goodwill, data, files, or anticipated savings
- Business interruption, downtime, or loss of use
- Cost of substitute products or services
- Damages arising from data breach, unauthorized access, or security incidents
- Damages arising from reliance on AI-generated output
- Damages arising from third-party service failures

- Personal injury, emotional distress, or property damage

This limitation applies regardless of the legal theory under which the claim is brought (contract, tort, strict liability, statute, or otherwise) and regardless of whether the Provider was advised of the possibility of such damages.

If, despite the foregoing, the Provider is found liable for any reason, the Provider's total cumulative liability to you for any and all claims arising out of or relating to the Materials shall not exceed the greater of (a) the total amount you paid the Provider for the Materials in the twelve months preceding the claim, or (b) one hundred US dollars ($100.00). Because the Materials are provided free of charge, this typically equates to one hundred dollars maximum.

Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of certain damages, so portions of this section may not apply to you. In those jurisdictions, the Provider's liability is limited to the smallest amount permitted by applicable law.

9. INDEMNIFICATION

You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Provider, its owners, members, managers, officers, employees, agents, contractors, affiliates, and licensors from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities, judgments, awards, settlements, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs) arising out of or relating to:

- Your access to, use of, or misuse of the Materials
- Your violation of this Agreement
- Your violation of any law, regulation, or third-party right (including intellectual property, privacy, and publicity rights)
- Any content, data, or communications you create, transmit, or process using the systems described in the Materials
- Any AI-generated output you act upon, publish, send, or rely upon
- Any claim by a client, customer, employee, or third party arising out of your use of the Materials

The Provider reserves the right to assume the exclusive defense and control of any matter otherwise subject to indemnification, in which case you agree to cooperate fully.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Materials, including all text, design, structure, organization, code, scripts, instructions, screenshots, and accompanying documentation, are the intellectual property of the Provider and are protected by United States and international copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws.

You may modify the Materials for your own personal use. Any modifications, derivatives, or improvements you create remain subject to this Agreement.

11. NO ATTORNEY-CLIENT, FIDUCIARY, OR PROFESSIONAL RELATIONSHIP

Use of the Materials does not create any attorney-client, accountant-client, advisor-client, consultant-client, broker-client, fiduciary, employment, partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between you and the Provider. You are not entitled to rely on the Materials as professional advice and you are not entitled to any duty of care or professional obligation from the Provider.

12. UPDATES, CHANGES, AND DISCONTINUATION

The Provider may modify, update, suspend, or discontinue all or any portion of the Materials at any time, without notice, and without liability. The Provider may also modify this Agreement at any time by posting an updated version. Your continued use of the Materials after any such change constitutes acceptance of the updated terms.

The Provider is under no obligation to provide support, maintenance, updates, bug fixes, security patches, or any other ongoing service related to the Materials.

14. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE

This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, United States, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Materials shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in the State of Florida. You consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection based on inconvenient forum.

15. INFORMAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Before initiating any legal action, you agree to first contact the Provider in writing using the contact method then published on the Provider's official website and attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute informally for a period of at least thirty (30) days. This requirement does not apply to claims for injunctive relief or intellectual property infringement.

16. WAIVER OF CLASS ACTIONS AND JURY TRIAL

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, you and the Provider each waive any right to:

- Participate in a class action, collective action, or representative action against the other
- A trial by jury in any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Materials

All disputes must be brought in an individual capacity and not on a class-action, consolidated, or representative basis.

17. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, that provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, or, if modification is not possible, severed from this Agreement. The remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

18. NO WAIVER

The failure of the Provider to enforce any right or provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the Provider to be effective.

19. ASSIGNMENT

You may not assign or transfer this Agreement or any of your rights or obligations under it without the prior written consent of the Provider. The Provider may assign this Agreement at any time without notice.

20. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and the Provider regarding the Materials and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings, communications, representations, and agreements, whether written or oral. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.
